Amazing Grace

Amazing grace!	'Twas grace that taught
How sweet the sound	my heart to fear,
That saved a wretch like me!	And grace my fears relieved;
I once was lost,	How precious did
but now am found;	that grace appear
Was blind, but now I see.	The hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.

The Band Played On

In honour of lives lived in harmony

They marched through life in perfect time,
With laughter in their step, a rhythm so fine.
Five little lives they raised in grace,

With warmth, and love's embrace.

They served with joy, they played with pride,
With trumpets high and hearts wide-eyed.
In uniforms pressed, in purpose strong,
Their faith and music led them along.

At dawn and dusk they prayed,
In halls where hymns and hopes were laid.
With every note, with every chord,
They gave their lives to serve the Lord.

Now Heaven's band plays one more tune,
As angels smile on Norm and June.
Their melody still lingers on-
In every heart, the band plays on.
